

---

themes

---

Jan Balon, Ph. D.

Theoretical research programmes in sociology

Conceptual and terminological analysis in contemporary sociology

Classical, modern and contemporary approaches in philosophy of social science, general methodology, sociology of science and sociology of knowledge

Transformations of social sciences

Theoretical legacy of American sociology

Prominent sociological schools, departments, figures, and ideas in history of European and American sociology

Ondřej Císař, Ph. D.

The Great Recession and Popular Responses to It

Political Economy of Protest

Interactions of Party and Protest Politics in Democratic Regimes

Internationalization of Political Mobilization

Popular Responses to the European Migrant Crisis

Political Populism/The End of Liberalism in East-Central Europe

Jakub Grygar, Ph. D.

State borders in changing world: anthropological perspective

Recognition, difference and the Other in everyday multiculturalism

Material objects in social interactions

Politics and practice of social housing

Martin Hájek, Ph. D.

Text, discourse, and narrative analyses and their use in the social sciences – qualitative and quantitative approaches

Sociology of state socialism

Sources of every-day knowledge about in/justice, morals, and social norms.

Sociology of collective memory.

prof. Hynek Jeřábek, Ph. D.

Classical inspiration of contemporary social research methodology

Mixed design in analytical methodology

Columbia sociological school and contemporary inspirations of its methodology

Jiří Remr, Ph. D.

Evaluation Specific Methodologies

Innovations of Research Methods

Methods and Techniques for Impact Assessment

Advances in Performance Evaluation. Approaches, Techniques and Applications

Effectiveness of Activation Programs for Senior Citizens

Evaluating Social Responsibility

Barbora Spalová, Ph. D.

Anthropology of christianity: regimes of power, religious speech and silence, morality of economy, consecrated life, memory, church and parish as exceptional organisations

German past in central Europe

Memory and lived space

Theatre and cultures of memory