

ISS Director's Decree 1/2025: Deadlines for submitting bachelor's and master's thesis projects

Bachelor's degree programs

For all bachelor's degree programs taught at ISS, including the Demography program with a specialization in public policy: the last day of January of the relevant year (with the possibility of defense in January / February of the following year), the last day of June of the relevant year (with the possibility of defense in June of the following year) and the last day of September of the relevant year (with the possibility of defense in September of the following year). Registration of projects in SIS is carried out only after approval by the guarantor, until then the project can be modified, the latest deadline for registering projects in SIS is 30.9, (for projects submitted by the end of June), or 15.2. (for projects submitted by the end of January). For the bachelor's degree program Political Science and Public Policy, the deadline for registration in SIS is set at 15. 2. or 15. 9.

Master's degree programs

For Master's degree program in Sociology, the deadline for submitting the project is 30.6. of the relevant year (with the defense deadline no earlier than June of the following year) and by 30.9. thereafter, the project must be entered into SIS (after incorporating the guarantor's comments).

For presence study of the Master's degree program in Public and Social Policy (Czech version), enrollment in the Diploma Seminar course is conditional on the student registering for the topic of the diploma thesis and specifying the principles for its preparation in SIS, before the start of classes in the given semester.

For distance learning of the Master's degree program in Public and Social Policy (Czech version), the diploma thesis project is created and registered in SIS as part of Diploma Seminar I.

Students of the MSNS program in the 2023/24 matriculation year have a set date for publishing the project in SIS no later than February 16, 2025. For students of other years, the deadline is always September 30 in the first year of their studies.

For all other master's degree programs taught at ISS (including foreign-language and double or joint degree programs), the deadline for submitting the project is the last day of January of the relevant year (with the possibility of defense in January / February of the following year), the last day of June of the relevant year (with the possibility of defense in June of the following year) and the last day of September of the relevant year (with the possibility of defense in September of the following year).

Petr Soukup, Director of the ISS

January, 2, 2025